

November 2011

THIS IS A QUICKIE TO LET YOU KNOW ABOUT AN EVENT!

Welcome to Art without Limits

Stay in touch with us and... Please feel free to opt out if you prefer not to receive these.

OUR MISSION:

Art without Limits creates intensive one-on-one mentorships for aspiring Santa Barbara County artists by pairing them with professional artists and business experts to help them succeed in their chosen art form. We also encourage emerging arts organizations by acting as their fiscal sponsor until they acquire their own not-for-profit certification.

A NEW PARTNERSHIP!

Art Without Limits has joined with SB Performing Arts League to present our business workshops. We can do twice as many workshops that way! We have also opened the workshops to the public. Members of PAL and AWoL mentors and emerging artists will be able to attend the workshops free of charge! The public will be charged $15 per event.

Wanna come to these events? Pop an email to julie@awolsb.org to sign up. You may pay at the door.

WANNA BE A MENTOR?

WE ARE COMPILING A LIST OF POTENTIAL MENTORS!

Many of you are artists in one form or another or have business skills that artists need to bring their careers to fruition. It is the time to give back to others what someone else, who believed in you, gave to you. Where would we be without the mentors that gave us hope and the knowledge that we have brought to our professional lives?

We are compiling a list of potential mentors. That doesn't mean you might be available all of the time, but that you are interested.

We want to grow the list to 100 talented artists and business people in Santa Barbara that care about the next generation of artists. We will have a workshop to introduce you to our programs and the needs of emerging artists.
